After necessary. Insert

Furthermore, the delegation sought the views of the secretariats on the implications of establishing independent oversight mechanisms and whether the problems that had given rise to the proposed structure would be solved by the existence of mechanisms of such a permanent nature. Focusing on paragraph 26 of the report, the delegation was of the opinion that, after a thorough examination of what could be accomplished through internal mechanisms, the funds and programmes themselves should decide upon whatever coverage they might require for investigative services.
